

James T. Hirano

June 25, 1971 - November 2, 2025

James T. Hirano, age 54, of Bradley passed away Sunday, November 2, 2025 at his home. Arrangements are pending at Evergreen Cremations in Kankakee.

Tribute Wall

B(

“ Betty Van Dyke (sister) lit a candle in memory of James T. Hirano

Betty Van Dyke (sister) - November 17, 2025 at 05:43 AM

MB

“ *Sending Heartfelt Condolences to the families.
Mary Kay & Ji. Beedle*

Mary Kay Beedle - November 06, 2025 at 03:00 PM

BD

*Our Dear Jim,
We will remember you for your warm heart, infectious laugh, great smile and sense of humor.
The impact you made will live on in all the hearts of those who were fortunate to know you.
Gone too soon, but you will never be forgotten. We will love you and miss you forever.
Your Sister's
Bonnie and Betty*

Betty Van Dyke - November 09, 2025 at 08:36 PM

BD

*Dear Jim,
I wrote you this poem and song.*

When It's Time

*You close your eyes now
Your struggle is done
Dad will be there
For his only son
To greet you with smiles
You'll be with him again
Family will greet you
Your new life has begun
Our hearts ache without you
We'll miss you with tears
But we know you'll be happy
You'll be rid of your fears
We loved you as a little boy
Then you grew into a man
But life didn't happen
As we had always planned
You'll always be that little boy
Full of love and boundless joy
So close your eyes now
Your struggles are done
Close your eyes now
Your new life has begun*

I love you, Jim

*By: Elizabeth Van Dyke
All Rights Reserved*

Betty Van Dyke - November 09, 2025 at 09:36 PM

ED

*Dear Jim,
It's been 6 months since you left us and my heart is heavy with sadness. My love for you will never go away. I know you are safe and well now, but it hurts nonetheless. Love you forever!
Your sister, Betty ☐*

Elizabeth Van Dyke - May 02 at 04:11 PM