In Loving Memory of Kenneth Paul III
June 12, 1956 – November 16, 2024

“Here I Go Again”

After 68 years of a life, Kenneth Paul III has found peace, reunited with God and his beloved parents on November 16, 2024. Born on June 12, 1956, Kenny was a man of complexity and compassion, whose journey was as multifaceted as the man himself.

Kenny was a fighter at heart, a painter by trade, and a man who wore many titles with pride— son, husband, father, brother, friend, partner, and uncle. His path was not always smooth, but his determination to find a better way forward left an enduring mark on those who loved him. His big heart and his "Kenny way" of showing love made him truly one of a kind.

"I'm just another heart in need of rescue, Waiting on love's sweet charity."

Ken's greatest pride and joy came from his children, Nicole (Paul) Wojcik, Christopher Paul, and Taylor Paul. Watching them grow and achieve their dreams brought him boundless happiness. His journey, though filled with lessons and challenges, was also filled with laughter, kindness, and a unique ability to leave an impression on everyone he met.

Let us honor Kenny by remembering the laughs, cherishing the lessons, and celebrating the love he shared in his own special way. Instead of flowers, I think he would wish for an act of kindness—unexpected and heartfelt—for someone in need.

Rest easy, Kenny. Though your journey here is complete, your spirit continues to inspire and guide us as we walk our own paths.

"Here I go again on my own,
Going down the only road I've ever known."

Celebrate his life in your way, knowing he is now at peace, walking a new road.

Many thanks to the people of Kankakee/Bourbonnais who have supported Kenny over the years.

Ken is survived by his three children, Nicole (Mike) Wojcik, Christopher (Brianna) Paul, Taylor Paul; his three grandchildren; his brothers and sister James (Sharon) Paul, Jeffrey Sr. (Ursula) Paul, Lori (Frank) Clark and Ronald (Julie) Paul; and nieces and nephews. Ken was preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth E. Paul Jr. & Ruth Ann (Nottelmann) Paul.
