Thomas Salustro (Tom), age 78, passed away peacefully on Thursday, July 31st 2025. Born October 14, 1946 he was the son of the late Michael & Neoma (Betty) Salustro.

On January 22, 1965, Tom married his sweetheart Geraldine Sura and they had 58 wonderful years together until her passing in 2023.

Tom was a Local 1889 Union carpenter for 55 years. He retired from RB Construction in 2007. Known on the job site as "Mad Dog," he earned not just a reputation, but lifelong friendships.

Tom's hobbies included woodworking and spending time with friends and family.

Father of Pamela (Eric) Wicklatz, Lisa (Rich) Blackwell and Thomas Salustro. Proud Papa to Eric Thomas (Jen) Wicklatz, Amanda (Aaron) Kane, T.J. Salustro and Jacob Salustro and great-grandfather of 7: Lucas, Henry and Sofia Wicklatz and Justin, Jakob, Eloise and Owen Kane who brought him so much joy. Brother of Gary (Pam) Salustro, Linda Salustro, and Michele Salustro.

Tom was preceded in death by his wife, parents, brother Michael Salustro, and sister Sharon Salustro.

Among those who mourn his passing are his loyal dog, Lady, his companion on countless golf cart rides and fish-feeding adventures and his dear friend and right-hand man, Bill, both of whom will miss him deeply.

The family is forever grateful to his devoted caregivers, Rachel and Kim, for their compassionate care, patience, and friendship during Tom's final years. Their kindness brought comfort not only to Tom but to all who loved him.

In accordance with Tom's wishes, no services will be held.
